Woman Uses Scalding Lye On Husband

Man And Wife Both Attempt Suicide Following Maniacal Attack

Driven by jealousy and worry, Mrs. Ada J. Brown, 44, poured a saucepan of scalding lye over her husband, 46 year old Louis Brown as he lay asleep in their home at 144 San Gabriel Court shortly after midnight Wednesday morning, perhaps fatally injuring him, and almost surely searing his eyes into blindness.

Rushed to the local police station for first aid at 1:20 Wednesday morning, Brown was suffering intensely from the acid burns, which transformed his face and upper body into a mass of purple third degree burns, and which swelled his eyes into white and staring protuberances twice their normal size.

Led into the police station by his son, Reuben, 22, for first aid, Brown blindly and frantically attempted to wrest a gun from Fire Chief W. D. Richards with which to shoot himself, so great was his suffering. At the time he had no idea what had happened to him—nor how.

In the meantime Mrs. Brown was being folled in a poison suicide try at the couple's home. She put a bottle of iodine to her lips, swallowing some, but it was dashed to the floor by the hands of her two daughters, Rose, 17, and Mary, 20, before she emptied the contents.

Police investigation disclosed that the Browns had heated arguments in the early hours of the day over Brown's dissolution of a business partnership with his brother-in-law, Abraham Osipow, and over his asserted intentions to another Sierra Madre woman. According to the children Mrs. Brown had asked her husband not to go to this woman's home any more. He replied that he would go there any time he wished, according to the children.

Full explanation of the causes underlying her act are thought to be contained in a note which Mrs. Brown wrote Tuesday and entrusted to her daughter Mary for delivery to a neighbor. Now in possession of the Sheriff's office, the missive is written in Jewish.

Summoned by Richards at his home, Chief of Police Gordon McMillan arrived at the police station as first aid was being given Brown by Dr. E. L. Jackson. Brown was rushed to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital where his condition was pronounced critical and it was said there was little chance of saving his eyesight should he survive.

Officer Harlan Gerlach was sent to the Brown's house when the injured man had been cared for. He found Mrs. Brown lying on a davenport in the living room. She was ill and her mouth was iodine stained.

"I did it, I did it," she screamed. "I wanted him to suffer as I have been made to suffer..." She said that she didn't mean to kill her husband but only to make him suffer. In a hysterical condition she was taken to the County Jail, where she now is lodged charged with assault with a caustic fluid. No other charges have been filed, pending the outcome of Brown's injuries. She will be called for preliminary hearing before a Los Angeles Municipal Judge on Monday.

Family arguments other than the one that resulted so tragically started, according to the children, over some property that Brown wished his wife to sign over to him.

Search of the premises on which the crime was committed showed that Mrs. Brown in her frenzy of hate had evidently followed her husband as he ran screaming into the yard immediately after her act. A two quart pan with traces of lye in the bottom was found on the west lawn, while empty lye cans were discovered lying in a trash box to the rear of the garage.

In a statement acknowledging her guilt Mrs. Brown said that she had contemplated what she had done since the argument with her husband the night before. Reuben, Rose and Mary sent a note to her stating that she have their love and support whatever may happen in the future.

Brown was moved from the Pasadena to the Los Angeles General Hospital Wednesday night. He owns the San Gabriel Court house in which he and his family lived, besides various other properties. The family has resided in this city for about ten years. He operates an electrical supply house at 314 West 3rd street in Los Angeles, while his brother-in-law's store is No. 319 on the same street.

ORDER NEW INCOME TAX RETURNS FILED

Collector of Internal Revenue Galen H. Welch, has just received instructions from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D.C., stating that an individual, corporation or partnership who has filed an income tax return under the Revenue Act of 1928 for the fiscal year 1932 is required to make a new return in accordance with the Revenue Act of 1932. Such returns shall be made on or before October 15.

Desperado Slips Out Of Police Net

Country Flooded With Description Of Bandit Furnished By Bank Employees

Regardless of the outcome of his murderous assault upon Police Officer Frank E. Meredith who attempted to halt his mad flight, the shopping bag bandit who stuck up the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, kidnapped Miss Mattie Seelye, assistant cashier, and stole three automobiles, faces enough charges to send him to prison for life. If Meredith dies the charge of murder will be added, of course, and he would undoubtedly be sent to the gallows if apprehended.

John Doe warrants have been issued for the desperado charging him with all manner of crimes and the whole country has been flooded with descriptions of the man furnished by Miss Seelye and other employees of the local bank. Los Angeles police have lost all trace of him. He was last reported as having been seen by a taxi driver who drove him from one address in Vernon to another in the same place. Police searched every house in the district without result and the hunted man is believed to have slipped out of the net thrown about him.

Meredith is still hovering between life and death in the Los Angeles Receiving Hospital, according to the officials there yesterday, with the extreme probability that he will be completely paralyzed by the bullet that lodged in his spine in the event that he lives.

Many Visitors Here For Meeting Of The Forest's Guardians

More than a hundred guests were present at the monthly meeting of the Angelus Forest Protective Association which was held at the Wistaria Vine here Tuesday evening. George Norris presided, in the absence of Fire Chief Richards, and an address of welcome was given by City Councilman Lester K. Layton, chairman of the fire committee of the Council.

Professor Loudermilk, instructor of an extension course at the University of California, gave the main address on the subject of the effect of vegetation on rainfall and kindred topics. He was preceded by President Ritzel, of the Protective Association, who read a paper on the effect of erosion and runoff on the water supply, and by Mr. Sopp, who told of the results of forestry experiments conducted in Santa Anita and Fish Canyons.

Dinner was served by the ladies of the Firemen's Auxiliary, and a musical program was presented by Mrs. George Norris, playing the accordion, and Mr. Bolstead, with his banjo.

Unemployed Name Committee To Make Survey Of The City

A resolution was adopted Monday night by the city's unemployed creating a "Co-operative Committee" consisting of nine members for the purpose of ascertaining the facts in regard to present local conditions and of devising ways and means of employment.

The committee is headed by Dean Arnold Bode, and consists of John Bailey, H. F. Barton, Albert Connell, Jedney Davis, Paul Domschke, Melvin Hill, Jasper King, Leigh Pruden and Max Tendler.

Next Tuesday night the public is invited to attend a meeting of the association at the Parish House of the Church of the Ascension. Speakers from other unemployed groups are to speak on their methods.

Local Councilman Named For Post On The GOP Committee

Lester K. Layton of this city was elected vice-chairman of the Republican County Central Committee of the 48th district at a meeting of the seven committeemen from this district held in Altadena on Monday. Frank P. Woods, of Altadena, was elected to the chairmanship and Mrs. Helen L. Ayres, of La Canada, is the new secretary.

On motion of Lester K. Layton, of Sierra Madre, seconded by Robert Patterson Jr., of East Pasadena, the candidacy of Frank G. Martin, of Altadena, for State Assembly, was endorsed. Mr. Martin won the nomination in the recent primary.

The committee plans and active campaign, in conjunction with the Republican county central committee. It is planned to hold meetings of the committee in La Canada, East Pasadena, and Sierra Madre, as well as in Altadena. It was announced that the committee will work for the success of the entire Republican ticket, but that the chief responsibility before the committee will be the success of the State Assembly ticket.

Colonel William M. Griffith, 1864 Mar Vista Street, Altadena; Mrs. May Dyches Sturmholtz, 106 South Hermosa street, Sierra Madre; and Shirley W. Owen, 1944 Beverly Drive, Altadena, have been recommended by Mr. Martin, the assembly nominee, for places on the Republican State Committee from this district.

Santa Claus Sends Out Early Call

Firemen Vote To Open Toy
Shop Again; Public Is Asked To Do Its Bit

Notice that Christmas isn't far around the corner came this week when volunteer firemen voted unanimously not only to continue their toy rebuilding activity of a year ago, but to open the Christmas toy shop and go to work right away on the job of making Sierra Madre youngsters happy.

"Every last man in the department is enthusiastic on the subject," Fire Chief Richards said, "and they're going right on the job. I was instructed to consult the owners of a couple of vacant store rooms in the business district with a view to securing a headquarters—a place where the men can work on the discarded toys that are brought in to be rejuvenated."

"It's up to the public now. Until a headquarters is secured toys may be brought to the fire station at the City Hall. No toy is beyond recall; the men did wonders with badly battered playthings last year and they went out bright, shiny and full of joy for the boys and girls who found them on Christmas morning."

"We want to get started early this year so that as many toys as possible can be turned out. If they are brought in this and next month, as they should be, we'll be able to take care of hundreds of dolls, wagons and trinkets of every kind. We must get the work out earlier than last year because the firemen will all be busily engaged in preparing for the Christmas tree, our annual party and the preparation and distribution of Christmas baskets. The dance and card party will be earlier this year than last—about the middle of December."

"A great many toys piled in on us too late last year to be fixed up in time for Santa Clause. A lot of folks held back and we were swamped at the last minute so that a lot of children were denied the happiness they might otherwise have had. We wish The News would stress the importance of getting the toys in to us early."

Regular Job Of This Hen To Lay Eight Inch Eggs

Now El Monte claims to have the hen most like the goose that laid the golden egg. Recently Glendora and Arcadia citizens exhibited at the Chambers of Commerce in their cities eggs claimed to be the largest ever produced. But I. L. Hollowell, of 525 Azusa avenue, in El Monte, says they are as marbles compared with the regular product of one of his year-old Rhode Island Red hens. He, too, took his prize egg to the Chamber of Commerce to be weighed and measured up.

It measured eight inches by six in circumference. "But there is nothing very unusual about this particular egg," said Mr. Hollowell, "for it is only a sample of the sort of double yolk egg this hen lays three or four times a week. We've used to such eggs and thought nothing of them until we read of the boastful ranchers in Arcadia and Glendora."

More Pupils Enroll Here First Week

Increases Shown In Both Elementary And The Parochial Schools

"So quiet you can hear a pin drop." That is usually an empty phrase. But not this week in Sierra Madre. The streets are that way most of the day now. Yeh, school opened Monday.

Perhaps the most interesting thing in connection with the routine grammar school opening is the news that Miss Elizabeth Steinberger will take over part time teaching duties in addition to her regular position as Principal. From 1:30 o'clock until 3 every afternoon she will instruct Miss Mary Phaler's third grade pupils in their three R's.

Miss Phaler will devote her afternoons to coaching the school orchestra. This organization of young musicians started in on Monday to work out the vacation-time kinks. While the playing was naturally somewhat ragged, the youngsters went to work with much energy for such an early date in the semester.

Seventy-two new children are enrolled in the Highland Avenue institution, bringing the total registration up to 369. There are only nine more that last year, however, as some of the regulars haven't yet returned from their vacations. This increase is unusual in light of the fact that in Pasadena the grammar school registration dropped off this year, and only the high schools and colleges showed an increase.

The Sister Emilian Sisters Superior at St. Rita's parochial school, announces that classes there have gotten under way smoothly, and that 20 new pupils so far brings their enrollment up to a new high mark of 86.

Eleanor M. Patterson, dietician of the grammar school, announced that the cafeteria is prepared to provide for approximately 100 pupils with noon luncheons. Each dish is priced low, and on the opening day every child's tray was examined by Ellen Coll Barker, nurse, to ascertain that a properly balanced meal had been chosen.

Directors Of Kiwanis Are Elected

A president and other officers of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club will be elected on Tuesday night at a meeting of ten directors chosen during the annual meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Woman's club house.

The first meeting of the new directors will be at the home of William J. Lawless. In addition to the selection of officers from among their number, the directors will outline a policy for the coming club year.

The ten directors chosen are William J. Lawless, former President Waverly E. Pratt, William Middough, Dr. John L. Wheeler, Clarence G. Huntsinger, A. F. Tegtmeier, Warren E. Craig, Jack Hosford, Dr. M. H. A. Peterson and Dr. E. L. Jackson.

At Tuesday's luncheon-meeting President Frank Spencer read a report from the district headquarters announcing that the attendance at the local club meetings during the last quarter of the club year—93 percent—ranked high in the district.

Visiting Kiwanians present included Maynard Turner and Walter McEachen of Altadena, A. Adams of Alhambra and Ralph Humphries of Monrovia.

Merchants Plan To Organize Credit Association Here

The Sierra Madre Merchants Association voted its unanimous approval of the plan to establish a Municipal Art League here and pledged its undivided support to the project at its monthly meeting in the City Hall on Monday night.

Plans for the organization of a credit bureau in the association were mapped out and arrangements made to have officers of the Monrovia credit association address the merchants at a dinner meeting to be held in the headquarters of the local American Legion Post on Monday, October 12.

A Shuler-for-Senator club will be organized at a meeting to be held at 7:45 next Monday evening in the Council Chamber at the City Hall. The meeting is called by a committee of the minister's local supporters including W. A. Evans, Mrs. Fletcher White, Mrs. Jennie Montgomery and Mrs. Ratliffe. Shuler led the field in the Senatorial contest in Sierra Madre polling 101 votes more than Senator Shortridge, who ran second. Shuler polled 313, Shortridge 212, Crall 174 and Tubbs 118.

Pennant Of The Legion Comes Here

Local Soldiers Beat Pasadena
Twice To Win League
Championship

Sierra Madre's soldiers made short work of grabbing the Legion League pennant in the play-off series by taking Pasadena down the line twice in a row. Winning the first game over at Brookside on Friday night 7 to 6, the locals saved the big treat for the hometown fans who jammed and crowded their way around the diamond here Tuesday to see the high and mighty Crown City veterans mowed down by the potent arm of Pitcher Pratt, to see the valley infield crack, and finally to cheer lustily as the game closed 7 to 5 and the series and Legion ball season both came to an end.

The two games provided just about everything that the most ardent non-town baseball fan could possibly expect. The 10-inning opener at Brookside Park on Friday, for instance, was a see-saw affair with the result in doubt until the very last minute. Twice during the last two innings a Pasadena run that would have won the game roosted on second or third base. But Pratt tightened up and held them there, once forcing a weak pop-fly and again striking out the batsman who was being urged to win the pennant for Pasadena.

A loyal band of rooters that accompanied the locals to Brookside park came home all frazzled out from the excitement of the first game. Some had scarcely regained their voices in time for Tuesday night's spectacular affair on the home grounds.

The two teams were about as evenly matched in hitting power and fielding ability as they could possibly be. The superior pitching of Pratt was the odd that gave our soldiers the two games and the pennant. The deciding game here on Tuesday was the third straight victory of Sierra Madre over the Pasadenans. The first was rung up in the last meeting of the two teams during the Legion schedule, at Brookside Park on August 26. It was the only game dropped by Pasadena during the last half of the regular playing season.

Imagine how snappy the final game here on Tuesday was. Morse, first man up for Pasadena in the first inning, popped out to Burroughs, but Milholland, the next man, socked the old leather into far left field for a homer. Burris and Eckstrom, next up, went down weakly as Pratt tightened up.

Pasadena's one run lead didn't last any longer than Mr. Welsh could help it. In the second half of the first Welsh stretched a shaky single into a double via the slide route, Harkness walked, Young went down before Palmer, Pratt popped a high one, was thrown out, and Welsh stole home. Burroughs' struck out.

Shaeffer opened the second with a drive in Pratt's shins. Bounding off it went for a single. He tried to steal second and was out. Stanley hit a hot one just inside Pickett, and Pickett made a pretty catch, putting the boy down.

Then he locals spit on their gloves and opened up—wide. Pickett drove a single to left field, Evans hit to second. Pickett went to third, then Young on a fumble of Reavis' infield tap. Olsen sent a Texas leaguer to left, landing the bases. There was a short interlude during which Hill flew out to right field, and Welsh did ditto to center. The dynamite was touched off by Young who smacked out a homer, bringing in Evans, Reavis, Olsen and himself. Pratt (Continued on Page Seven)

Carnival Planned By Woman's Club

Plans for a carnival to be held by the Woman's Club were discussed on Tuesday evening by members of the Junior League of the Woman's Club, who will be in charge of the entertainment.

Appreciation Is Expressed By The Victorious Vets

The News passes on to its readers the following communication it received yesterday, and which it deeply appreciates:

L. R. Goshorn, Publisher
The Sierra Madre News:
On behalf of the Sierra Madre Legion baseball team I wish to thank THE NEWS for the splendid support given us during the season that has just ended so gloriously. The generous co-operation we received at your hands did much to keep us all on our toes and spurred us on to our very best efforts, with the result that the boys brought home the bacon, or the flag, or what have you. We are indeed deeply grateful and I am quite sure that the many loyal fans here share this feeling.
Sincerely yours,
WAVERLY E. PRATT.

Democrats Here Form A Roosevelt And Garner Club

The Roosevelt-Garner Club of Sierra Madre was organized at a meeting last night at the City Hall. The following officers were elected: Edward H. Hoevel, president; Dr. C. L. Herbert, vice-president; Mrs. C. B. Corum, secretary and Waverly E. Pratt, treasurer.

Last Chance To Enroll In Art League

Applications Not On File
Next Monday Will Be Ignored, Says Artist

By Henry Ivins Huxhurst
In today's NEWS there appears the third and last entry blank which enables you to join the Art League. Next Wednesday, the 21st, the enrollment closes. If you do not have your entry blank properly filled out and into the NEWS office by 6 o'clock on that date you will be out of luck as far as becoming a member of the Art League is concerned.

In The NEWS on Friday, the 23rd, there will appear a list of those who have expressed a desire to become a member of the first Municipal Art League ever started in the U.S.A. In addition to this list there will be interesting details which you must not miss.

Remember this—no one who signs the entry blank obligates himself to anything—to date none but students desiring free instruction have registered. How about you patrons? Isn't there a person in this town with enough vision—enough ambition for the promotion of art and culture to dip his pen in ink and admit it?

For every one who has enough ambition and energy to join this League, so that he may learn, there should be at least five patrons to boost, encourage and applaud his efforts.

The nearest thing to being a great artist is to be a great patron. We've heard a lot about Sierra Madre being an exceptionally cultured community and we believe it is far above the average small community in artistic appreciation. But as Andy says, "we're going to check and double check on it." In a way this signing up and sending in, of these entry blanks is a kind of straw vote. Whether Sierra Madre goes on the map as backing a unique movement depends upon every member of the community.

A few of us are willing to devote our time and ability to the instruction and furthering of the art education of our community. All the pay we ask in return is generous co-operation and a sincere desire to learn all that we are capable of imparting.

Several phone calls have been received asking the age limit of students who desire to join the league. We answer that age has nothing to do with one's eligibility to become a member.

Those who are too young to study in the night classes will be placed in the classes that will be arranged for every Saturday afternoon.

Another fact we wish to explain. It makes no difference whether one has ever studied art before or not. If they possess the desire to become an artist, and are willing to apply themselves to its study, that is all the League will demand.

Come on, everyone send in your entry blanks and let's put the League membership over in a big way.

Legion To Install Officers On Monday

Arthur Embree, Post Commander of the American Legion here will officially turn his gavel over to Commander-elect Roy O. Calkin at the installation meeting which is to be held next Monday evening, September 19, in Legion headquarters in the City Hall.

The District Commander will be present to preside over the installation ceremonies, and many Legionnaires from out-of-town posts are expected to be present.

City Costs Contrasted At Meeting

W. A. Evans Says Attacks
Upon Council Are Inspired
By Desire For Revenge

MAYOR SUBMITS FIGURES
Municipal Records Quoted To Show Big Reduction In Operating Expense

The cost of conducting Sierra Madre's municipal affairs by the present City Council and the former one dominated by Henry Isaacs and Joseph Belohlavek was contrasted at a Council meeting on Wednesday night when Mr. Isaacs repeated his demand that City Business Manager Al S. Myers be dismissed and H. J. Kohl echoed the demand and insisted that the Council reopen and reduce the budget to conform with a resolution he presented to the Council three weeks ago.

W. A. Evans charged that the repeated fault finding and attacks of Mr. Isaacs and his associates upon the City Council is due to a thirst for revenge by former Councilmen who were recalled by the people.

Taking up the various recommendations for budget reductions contained in the resolution he had previously presented to the Council, Mr. Kohl wanted to know why Council had found it impossible to further reduce the city's operating costs by cutting down the appropriation for police, for maintenance of the building inspection bureau, the planning commission and other activities.

Mayor Reavis answered that the Council had reduced every appropriation to the last possible level consistent with a maintenance of the city service. The high tax rate, he said, was not due to a high operating cost, but to a reduced assessable valuation and the necessity of raising funds with which to pay the interest and principal on bond issues. Also, he said, the Council was not responsible for the increased school tax and as a matter of fact the people would pay less taxes under the tax rate for 1932-33 than they had paid on a lower rate in 1931-32. Besides, he said, the city would be operated for $6,000 less than the cost of operation last year.

Mr. Isaacs charged that the tax rate is high because money had been squandered on settling basins. He repeated his demand that the positions of City Business Manager and Assistant City Clerk be abolished.

"We don't need a business manager in a city the size of this—they don't have them in other cities of this size," said Mr. Isaacs, "and I am going to insist upon your cutting down the expenses of this city. If you don't think you can do it, step down and let some one else do it."

It was then that Mayor Reavis contrasted the operating expenses of today with those of the fiscal year 1928-29, the last year in which Mr. Isaacs and Mr. Belohlavek sat in the Council. Mayor Reavis said the Isaacs-Belohlavek Council spent more than $80,000 to carry on the city's activities that year, as against $68,000 spent by the present Council during the last year.

"The books of the city show," said the Mayor, "that during the year 1928-29 there was spent for the salaries of all executive heads and assistants except the legal and engineering departments, the sum of $18,522.34, as against $15,852.50 last year. In 1928-29 the item of legal expense was $4,005.00 and in 1929-30 it was $2,446.96. In 1928-29 engineering expenses amounted to $9,958.82 and last year the same item was $2,779.65. In 1928-29 garbage collection cost $2,400 and last year it cost $600."

If it were possible to operate the city for so little as is now claimed, Mayor Reavis wanted to know why it had not been done in the present administration. It was at this point that W. A. Evans arose in the audience.

"Mr. Isaacs seems to want us to forget that when he sat in the Council he had a man doing the same things that the present business manager is doing and that he was paid more money for doing it not so well as it is being done now in spite of the fact that Mr. Carpenter had a much larger force of employees under him. There were no cuts in the payroll then. Mr. Myers has materially reduced the number of employees and the operating costs generally."

"This constant nagging and fault finding dates back to the recall election. The men who were recalled are after revenge and they are making it a point to keep on stirring up enmity in the community for that one and only purpose and I suppose they will continue to do it as long as they live here and are able to do it. If it wasn't for this thirst for revenge they wouldn't be here tonight and no fault would be found with the budget."

"Just now they are trying to squeeze Mr. Myers out of office and that is being done in the spirit of revenge. He is rendering valuable service to the city and for much less money than (Continued on Page Eight)

WOULD SILVER HELP?

It has been dramatically said that silver, as a money, is the poor man's gold.

The most populous nations of the world are on the silver standard of coinage. They know no other medium of exchange. And when the price of silver is debased, as at present, it means that the purchasing power of those countries has been cut to 60, 50 or 40 per cent of its former level. That in turn means that the gold standard countries have lost great—and vitally needed—foreign markets.

The whole future well-being of the world is intimately related to the question, "What are we going to do about silver?" The economic status of hundreds of millions of people is largely dependent on the answer. The monetary problem reaches into every community, every home—and touches every pocket.

Activities Of PTA Will Be Extended

Interesting Program Is Arranged For Initial Meeting On Wednesday

The officers and board of the Parent-Teachers Association will entertain at tea Friday afternoon, September 16, in honor of the teachers of the Sierra Madre School. The tea will take place in the pretty gardens at the home of Mrs. L. E. Sullivan, on East Alegria. The guests will be the teachers and all the members of active committees—about fifty are expected.

The first meeting of the association will be held next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the kindergarten room of the school. An interesting program consisting of short talks has been arranged by the program committee, in charge of Mrs. E. R. Thompson. Mr. Merrill Berkley, a member of the National Identification Bureau, will discuss the benefits and methods of fingerprinting children for identification in cases of lost or kidnapped children.

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, the school principal, will talk on "Co-operation Between the Parents and Teachers."

Mrs. M. P. Conrad, who has been chosen to organize and lead the Girl Scout and Brownie troops to be sponsored by the P.T.A., will tell her plans for the work, which should be very interesting to mothers of small girls. Plans for the mothers' chorus will also be discussed and it is hoped a large number will join. Mrs. Fred Griesenow will give a short talk on "Art in its relation to the school child."

After the business meeting there will be a social hour during which tea will be served by the hospitality committee.

It has been arranged to have all small children cared for under competent adult supervision and with this in mind a penny collection will be taken.

Mrs. Elmer Pulling, president of the organization, announces that Mrs. Arthur Embree has been appointed chairman of the "room mothers," a group composed of three or four mothers chosen from each room to act as hostesses at the meetings and to assist with the inside publicity; also to arrange an occasional party for the children of the room they represent. A complete list of the room mothers will be announced shortly.

FOUR A.L.A. members represented Unit 297 at the funeral of Comrade Mackie last Tuesday. Mr. Mackie was the brother of Mrs. Fern Gibbs, our past 1st vice-president. Mrs. Ora Olsen, Mrs. Leila Embree, Mrs. Maybelle Barker and Mrs. Lilly Wheeler joined with the Legion in paying their respects to the departed.

Southern California Units made an excellent showing at the Oakland Convention according to the report given by Leila Embree, delegate. The three winning drill teams were from our part of the State. Many of the State officials were chosen from Southern California nominees. Gertrude Powell and Gladys Prescott, both from the 18th district were elected to hold office in the Past Presidents' Parley. We were all pleased to hear that the age limit for schooling paid for by the Auxiliaries for veterans' orphans has been raised, thereby allowing many young folks to complete their education. Before Convention the age limit prevented many from completing the last year of college or business school. Mrs. Embree's report was concise, interesting and covered so many slants of the entire convention. She is likely to find she will be as the next convention delegate. What a ball game between Sierra Madre and Pasadena last Friday at Brookside Park. It was about as intense a combat as most of us can stand. Louise Roe had a cow-bell in action the first few innings—but when excitement grew the cow-bell was discarded. We could be heard for miles, and one femme from Pasadena informed those nearby that when other teams came there to play it was quiet. But Sierra Madre not only had too many rooters but too clamorous rooters. Which criticism we accepted with great pleasure in our own particular and inimitable manner. Anyway we won and that was something to crow about, even if we did disturb the Pasadena team and rooting section.

One of the Evans boys wasn't as fortunate in his ball game accidents as his Dad. During a fast game at the school grounds, he was smacked a hard one over the eye with the bat, we understand, and got a nasty cut when his glasses broke. No wonder Ellen isn't so ga-ga over ball games. Remember next Monday, September 19th, is the first 18th District Meeting under the supervision of the new officers. Phone Mrs. Arthur Embree or Mrs. Lucille Pickett for information or reservations for transportation.

This same date is scheduled for the installation of local Legion officers. A gang of A.L.A. have threatened to crash the gate and act as audience. If their installation ceremony is conducted in the same fashion as their District meeting—whoops, m'dear, we'd surely like an invitation to attend.

The A.L.A. Installation, Monday, September 12, was well attended. Many we haven't been seen lately gave us a pleasant surprise by being there. Eight Legionnaires attended and if interested attitudes and pleased smiles are to be taken as a favorable sign, we are to be congratulated that they weren't bored by the "weaker sex." Quite a few out-of-town guests were present, among which were Mrs. Laura Smithson, installing officer and Mrs. Myrna Wyntoop, past 18th District president. All attending were well pleased with the ceremonies of installation and the escort duties performed by the new sergeant-at-arms and marshal, two red-heads, dressed in red, white and blue. Mrs. Lovetta Pratt gave two funny readings. Mrs. Clara Newman, 1st grade teacher in the Sierra Madre School was very kind and gave us three songs, accompanying herself on the piano that were received with much applause. Past President Pickett and President Barker looked very charming in white gowns and both were very gracious as retiring and present presidents.

With the Scouts

A CAMPOREE, with all troops of the San Gabriel Council participating, will be held at Camp Huntington on October 8 and 9.

What is a Camporee? According to scout headquarters, it will be an exposition of patrol camping technique in which all will compete against a fixed standard of proficiency rather than against each other.

Here are the details: On Saturday afternoon, patrols of six or eight boys from each troop will check in at camp. From then on until Sunday afternoon when the Camporee ends the patrols will be competing and will receive points for their work. Of course, the bunch with the greatest number of points will win. Meals, patrol organization, equipment and many other things are judged.

All the scouts must qualify for this contest by taking an overnight hike. A report of this hike must be turned in also to be judged for points.

Both Sierra Madre troops are planning to send patrols which will try to capture as much of the 1000 points maximum as possible.

With the meeting of Wednesday, September 14, Troop 2 began its regular fall activities. Scouts should be on hand for troop registration. Meetings will be each Wednesday at 7:30 as usual.

Following is the 1932-33 Huntington schedule for Sierra Madre: November 4-5 and December 30-31. Remember Scouts, if you go, be at camp as soon as possible after school Friday. Bring bedding and food for Friday's supper and breakfast Saturday and also lunch. Camp closes at 4 o'clock Saturday. Tests are passed in the morning beginning promptly at 9 o'clock.

Also—Guest camp September 23 and 24 for all Scouts and Scouters. Scouts may bring any boy over seven years, or anyone who is not a Scout. And on October 8-9 the 1932 Camporee will be held with representation from almost every troop in the Council. Visitors are welcome—Scouts may bring blankets and stay overnight. Events begin at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

STATE-WIDE DRIVE AGAINST ROAD HOGS

Motorists who are inclined to "hog the road" by driving close to the center of the road or actually astraddle the center line of the highway are being urged to think of the drivers behind them. The danger, discourtesy, and unlawfulness of the "road hog" habit of driving is the subject of a statewide campaign this month by the California Committee on Public Safety.

"Your half of the road is not in the middle," is the phrase adopted by the committee for use as a slogan in connection with the campaign. The effort is being carried on with the cooperation of enforcement authorities and civic groups.

BEST BENNET FILM AT LYRIC THEATRE

"Two Against the World," Constance Bennett's latest dramatic picture, will be screened at the Lyric Theatre in Monrovia tomorrow night and Sunday. In this picture appear such well-known actors as Neil Hamilton, Roscoe Karns, Alan Mowbray, Gavin Gordon.

Miss Bennett portrays a rich society girl who attempts to defend her brother by sacrificing her honor in the courtroom. She develops from a frivolous person into a noble woman. Her lover is the prosecuting attorney, played by Neil Hamilton. The climactic situation is full of suspense.

Both emotional acting and light comedy work are carried off with consummate ease by the actress in this film, and she shows herself to be a true daughter of Richard Bennett.

MANY FILM STARS AT PLAYHOUSE OPENER

Helen Mack, Fox debutantstar of 1931, plays a leading feminine role in "Louder, Please," Norman Krasna's comedy satire of the Hollywood publicity departments, which opened at the Pasadena Community Playhouse on Tuesday evening. Victor Jory is seen in the leading role of the production with Monty Collins, screen comedian and director, also featured.

Members of the Wampas and a large number of screen folk attended the opening performance.

SIX PRIZES AWARDED AT ST. RITA'S CARD PARTY

Miss Anna Gerhard was winner of the first prize at 500 on Tuesday evening at St. Rita's card party and Warren E. Craig was awarded first prize at bridge. Joe Renter captured second prize and Mrs. T. Henderson, third, at 500, and J. Mangham and Miss Nora Hemming were winners at bridge. The card parties are weekly features, being held every Tuesday evening.

POVERTY PARTY SPONSORED BY VETERANS DAUGHTERS

The Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War are sponsoring a "Poverty Party" next Wednesday evening, September 21 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. V. Stewart, 233 Santa Anita Court. Everyone is asked to wear old clothes and a prize will be awarded for the worst looking costume. Bridge, 500 and hearts will be played. Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. A. H. Gibbs at 342-3 or Mrs. Etta M. Wright at 217-4.

PASTOR TO SHOW PICTURES
Pictures of the National parks, among which will be Grand Canyon, Bryce, Zion, Yellowstone and Teton, a new National park in Wyoming, will be shown this evening by Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard at 7:45 o'clock in the Social Hall of the Congregational Church. The parks to be shown were visited by Rev. Mr. Pritchard, while on his vacation this summer.

Busy Season Just Ahead For Players

New Playshop Opens And Many New Activities Will Be Introduced

After a short period of inactivity during the vacation months, the Players of Sierra Madre are again engaged in preparing an ambitious program of play production and workshop experimentation. This week the organization leased the Playshop, on the second floor of the Woman's Clubhouse, and a good sized stage has been built. Accessories are being installed which will provide a well equipped little theatre for rehearsals and for presentation of short plays.

The first Friday evening in each month will be devoted to membership meetings, in accordance with last season's schedule. This year Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, president of the club, is introducing various activities. An evening each month will be devoted to play reading and reviewing in an effort to keep in touch with any and all good production bets.

In connection with the regular monthly meeting, and commencing an hour or two before the general meeting, a short poetry reading period will be held for all members interested in it.

Next Wednesday, September 21, the first of the season's plays will be on view in Mrs. Fred Hooker Jones' garden. Three one act fantasies, "Passing Shadows," "Two Maids," and "A Man," are on the bill. In the first named the cast includes John Corlett, Treva Scott, June Picard, Mrs. Bert Finlayson and Craig McLaughlin. The parts in the latter two are enacted by Frank Bryan, Catherine McClelland and Sadie Sellers.

Art work for the plays is in charge of Margaret Griebnow, and will be executed by William Corlett. Rudolph Hartman is handling the outdoor lighting effects, while Mrs. A. E. Pulling and Mrs. Milford Thompson are the stage directors.

It has also been definitely decided that H. G. Coulter's three act drama, "The Idealist" will be staged sometime during the latter part of October. This play, in which Catherine McClelland and Selwyn Myers play the youthful leads, will go into rehearsal on the club's stage next week.

MICHIGANERS TO PICNIC
The Michigan people of all Southern California have been called to their official picnic reunion to be held in Sycamore Grove Park, Saturday, September 17th, 1932, under the auspices of the Michigan Association of Southern California which has been featuring these reunions for more than 25 years. Dr. E. E. Haring, President of the Association, is in charge of all plans and arrangements for the day.

All Ready for Opening of Greatest County Fair

With 30,000 entries representing the greatest panorama of Southern California's agricultural and industrial achievement, the doors of the eleventh annual Los Angeles County Fair, combined with Riverside and Orange County Fairs, will be thrown open at 10 o'clock Friday morning, Sept. 16. For the succeeding ten days the beautiful fair grounds will be the Mecca for what is expected will prove the greatest attendance in the fair's history. At 10:30 Saturday morning, Sept. 17, the beautiful new steel and concrete grandstand will be dedicated by Governor James Rolph, Jr.

Pictures of the front and rear of the new grandstand, seating 10,500 and containing four large exhibit halls, is contained herewith. All records for number and variety of exhibits are being shattered this year.

Local Artist Prepares Exhibit: Forsakes Commercial Field And Will Open Foothill Portrait Studio

WITH an extensive exhibit of her own canvases planned for the near future in the Los Angeles studios of Dana Bartlett, Mrs. Beatrice Ward Kelterborn, widely known Sierra Madre artist, announces that she has definitely given up her commercial art work, and will devote herself entirely to portrait painting in the foothill studio home which she is now planning.

Much of Mrs. Kelterborn's early practical training was gained in the field of commercial art work for the motion picture industry. She did poster illustrations for the picture that made Lubitch, "The Marriage Circle." An oil painting of Corrine Griffith is one of her choicest works.

Having worked for most all of the major studios—M.G.M., Warners, Paramount—Beatrice Ward, as she is known professionally, recently did special oil paintings for Sid Graman during the showing of "Hell's Angels" at the Chinese Theatre. That was the first time that oils had ever been used for theatre lobby display work, and Lee Shippey featured the news in his Los Angeles column at the time.

In the portrait collection, as it now stands, there are the faces of many folks familiar to this town. One of Lee Shippey couldn't be any more lifelike if the wild mop of hair were to start blowing in the breeze. Two studies of Adolph Kelterborn are included. One was exhibited some weeks back in the Little Gallery here. The other is an unusual thing with a background of sea and sky, with a lighting of brilliant sunlight.

Dian Masury, Dorothy Wamock and Hugh Addis are others who have posed for Mrs. Kelterborn. The picture of Addis, a life sized canvas, was hung in Bullocks sport window during the Olympiad. It shows the boy, in athletic trunks, poised on one foot, in flight. According to our way of thinking it was far superior to the figure breasting the tape on the official Olympic poster.

Accompanying the oil works will be a pastel of Bartlett himself, which Mrs. Kelterborn is now tinting.

Next on her list, after she finishes the portrait of young Dorothy Wamock upon which she is now at work, she will attempt to paint Doctor E. L. Jackson, "Attempt" is the word she uses herself. Never having sketched a doctor before there is worry in her mind as to whether people will stop being sick long enough for me to find out what the Doctor looks like.

EXPECT BIG CLASSES AT MONROVIA'S NIGHT SCHOOL FOR ADULTS

Night school classes for adults will open for the fall term at the Monrovia high school on Monday evening, September 26th. Instruction will be offered free in all special day and evening classes for adults, as in former years.

An unusually large enrollment is expected, due to the fact that the night school has recently been reclassified by the State Department of Education as a regular four-year evening high school, offering diplomas of graduation and certificates of accomplishment upon the completion of definite courses of study.

Special day and evening classes for adults will be organized in over 30 subjects including chorus, orchestra, voice, fundamental art, arts and crafts, show card writing, bookkeeping, business law, shorthand, typewriting, salesmanship, correct English, public speaking, short story writing, recent books, dramatics, lip reading, Spanish, sewing and dress-making, home gardening, parent education, auto mechanics, machine shop, wood working, printing, gymnasium for women, gymnasium for men, English for foreigners, Naturalization, home hygiene, history, current events, and travel.

People Here Have Much To Learn From Europe, Says Nurse

Mrs. Ellen Coll Barker has returned from a trip back to Erin, to the home of her mother, and a three months' tour of France, Switzerland, Italy and the British Isles.

"The only unpleasant part of the whole trip," she says, "was when our bus nearly fell off a four thousand foot cliff in the Alps—the road was bad because of winter storms. However the rest of the trip was perfect—fine weather—courteous treatment everywhere."

The highlights of her trip, Mrs. Barker said, included the first view of the age old Coliseum in Rome—her mother's girlhood home in Ireland, and the schoolhouse where she went to school—the mammoth wine cellars in Paris—and the painting "The Last Supper."

Returning to her work as school nurse here, Mrs. Barker was glad to be home, yet expressed herself as confident that she gained much from her summer that will remain with her. "We think that we have gained a lot," she remarked, "in the 150 years which our country has been a nation. But I believe we are inclined to be a bit too patriotic about things. One has only to travel abroad, to observe the work and culture of centuries, to know that we have much to learn from Europe. It seems to me that we are learning already to live more like they—with less regard for money, and more for leisurely enjoyments."

WOMAN OF LONG LIVED FAMILY CELEBRATES HER 90th BIRTHDAY

A family dinner party last Thursday celebrated the 90th birthday of Mrs. A. E. Johnson, mother of Mrs. C. E. Foster of 65 South Baldwin avenue. The out-of-town guests, Mrs. M. E. Benoit of Ocean Park, and Mrs. Mary Manuel of Los Angeles, sisters of Mrs. Johnson, are 85 and 80 years of age. The three sisters are the last surviving members of Mrs. Johnson's family. Mrs. Johnson, who is as active in mind and body as she was 20 years ago, was born in Mooreland, N.Y., coming to California over forty years ago. She has resided for the past 17 years in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Foster says that Mrs. Johnson is in better health now than she was 20 years ago. She lives temperately and she and Mrs. Foster are constant companions. In taking an active interest in young people during her lifetime, she has kept her ideas alive and young.

ARCADIA FIXES ITS TAX RATE ON PROMISE OF BALDWIN ESTATE

Whether or not Arcadia will be able to carry on its government according to schedule in the coming year on the new tax rate which the council has set at $1.69, depends largely upon whether the promises made by the manager of the Anita Baldwin estate that its back taxes will be paid, is made good.

Approximately $25,000 in delinquent taxes and penalties is due the city from the estate, and although Lowry McCaslin, the Baldwin business manager, promised close cooperation with Arcadia in the matter of the back payments, he took the Council to task for increasing the valuation on his properties 4.5 per cent this year.

The Baldwin properties represent nearly 25 per cent of Arcadia's total assessed valuation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lytle, who reside at 52 East Central avenue, have returned from a trip to Florida and New York and have purchased a ranch near Long Beach, where they will make their home.

Miss Shirley Chamberlain of West Montecito avenue, pupil of Gustav Rihard, played Beethoven Concerto at a musicale given at Prof. Sinner's studio in Pasadena last Wednesday evening. Several of Miss Chamberlain's Sierra Madre friends attended.

E. J. Webster of 121 East Alegria avenue, has returned from a delightful summer at his home on Lake Pend O'Reille, Idaho. The return trip was made by plane from Spokane to Seattle, Wash., and from Seattle to Los Angeles by boat. Mr. Webster has returned in time to celebrate his 85th birthday on October 2 in Sierra Madre.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Dalzell, who have been visiting Mrs. Dalzell's mother, Mrs. S. H. Guilford at 241 East Grand View avenue, for the past two months, left on Sunday for their home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Edward Roxburgh, Mrs. Edith Chandler and Robert Chandler of Chicago, left on Tuesday for their home, following a visit of a week with Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Ogg of 258 North Mountain Trail avenue.

John Kenefick of Ramona avenue, has been vacationing for a week and returned on Monday to his position as manager of the meat department of the Central avenue Safeway Store.

Mrs. H. Brandon of 194 East Montecito avenue, left this week for a two month's visit in Kentucky. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Charles Metzger

Home Orator Wins Honor In Contest

Local Kiwanian Takes Award In District Competition At Glendora

Clarence G. Huntsinger of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club walked off with second place in the divisional Kiwanis oratorical contest held at Glendora last Friday night with his talk on "Today's Challenge to Kiwanis." Mr. Black of Alhambra, took first honors. Representatives of eight other Kiwanis clubs of the San Gabriel Valley district were entered in the competition and the judges voted unanimously in favor of the Sierra Madrean's award, which was greeted with hearty applause by the more than 150 persons who heard the address.

Giving a brief introduction wherein he stressed the fact that the value of an idea lies not so much in its accuracy as in the new and different angle of perspective it gives to other thinking minds, Huntsinger went on to say:

A dress especially designed for the woman with hips three inches larger than the average. Crinkly silk crepe is the material recommended for this design, with its slenderizing hip line.

The suspender dress for the young girl is a skirt and suspender model in soft blue linen with a guimpe in blue and white dotted swiss.

"Material riches have nothing to do with happiness and well-being—except perhaps to make their attainment possible. A life of happiness and well-being must be built on moderation, patience, kindness, helpfulness. Growth rather than quick climbing."

"Because today's misery is a direct result of yesterday's dissipation, it seems to me that today's challenge to Kiwanis is a challenge to every one of us to profit by what we have been taught—to give spiritual and social example to our fellow men, and to release within ourselves that life's finest things are not material."

"And so in conclusion... I feel that we have already built in Kiwanis a structure impervious to disintegration. Today's challenge then is 'Keep Your Head.' Continue today as Kiwanis taught us yesterday."

Eight members of the local club attended the district meeting before which the orator appeared. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gaze and Gus Rihard Jr., accompanied them and contributed to the incidental program of entertainment.

of 80 East Grand View avenue, accompanied their daughter, Miss Edith Hawks, to Santa Barbara, on Wednesday, where Miss Hawks will reside with her aunt, Miss Daisy Hawks, while attending a teacher's college. Miss Hawks has enrolled for a four year course.

Mrs. Chris Mueller of 50 East Alegria avenue, returned on Friday from a month's visit with her daughters, Mrs. C. C. Slete and Mrs. DeForest Bush, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Several family gatherings were held in honor of Mrs. Mueller at the Ohio city, at which four generations were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wam-mock and daughter Dorothy, of 258 East Central avenue, were the guests of Mrs. Wamomck's father, Edwin C. Polue, at the Shrine picnic on Saturday at Recreation Park, Long Beach. Miss Myrtle Wood was the guest of Dorothy and was the winner in a "Shoe Scramble" race.

Mrs. Alice M. Dunbar of Brockton, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Simons of 42 North Auburn avenue. She made the trip with the American Legion, through Yellowstone Park to Seattle, Wash., and Vancouver, B.C., returning to Portland, Ore., where the Legion is in session. Mrs. Dunbar will rejoin the contingent of Legionnaires, who are stopping in Los Angeles, on Sunday morning.

Local delegates to the Southern California Conference of the American Red Cross held at the Elks Club, Los Angeles, on Wednesday were: W. R. Humphries, local chapter chairman, who served on the reception committee; Mrs. Nancy Behring, Mrs. Horvath, Mrs. Harry Holland, Joseph Swanson, Dean A. G. H. Bode, Miss Lydia Webster, Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Miss Marion Vannier and Mrs. Elmer E. Pulling.

In A Social Way

In honor of the 74th birthday of C. McClellan, of 209 West Laurel avenue, a surprise birthday party was given on Saturday evening. A dinner was served and a beautiful birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream to the guests. Among members of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClellan of Glendale, Mrs. Lily Sample and daughter of Alhambra, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cole and three sons of Rosemead, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McClellan and son and daughter of Riverside, and Paul McClellan, grandson, of Fairbury, Neb.

The marriage of Mrs. Eva Turney and Frank Thomas of East Montecito avenue, was solemnized last Tuesday at noon in Long Beach in the presence of relatives and friends. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are enjoying a honeymoon in San Francisco, where they will spend two weeks visiting friends.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the home of A. B. Murphy, retired Baptist minister, East Montecito avenue, when Mr. Murphy united in marriage Miss Garnette Marsh, daughter of Mrs. M. Marsh of 41 Victoria Lane, and Phil Hedlund of Hollywood, Miss Marsh was lovely in a sports suit of brown and was attended by Miss Pauline Hedlund. Bud Marsh, brother of the bride, served the groom as best man. Only intimate friends were present at the ceremony. The young couple are honeymooning in the north.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers of 306 West Highland avenue, entertained at dinner on Sunday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson of Santa Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Munson of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Harry Bourne entertained on Wednesday evening at her home, 119 West Grand View avenue. A picnic supper was served. The guests were Mrs. Ora Caskey, Mrs. Louise Gray, Mrs. Carrie Holden, Mrs. Eva D. Moore and Mrs. R. J. Lord.

A farewell dinner party, honoring Graeme Smith, who left on Thursday morning for Philadelphia, Pa., was held on Wednesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smith, 609 West Central avenue. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Smith of Glendale, and Miss Margaret Moote of Sierra Madre.

A surprise birthday party was given last Tuesday evening for Miss Gwendolyn Gaze of 483 Mariposa avenue, in honor of her seventeenth birthday. Sixteen Pasadena and Sierra Madre friends were present.

Honoring the 82nd birthday of T. R. Kimbrough of 167 East Montecito avenue, a surprise party was given on Friday evening. Mr. Kimbrough is proud of having been born on Admission Day, 1850. Sixteen persons were present, of whom many were Gospel members.

IMPORTANT CLASSES ANNOUNCED AT U.S.C.

Enrollment of students from cities within a 40-mile radius of Los Angeles for the fall quarter at University College, downtown night division of the University of Southern California, compares favorably in number with that of former years, according to Ernest W. Tieg, dean of the college. Students from Sierra Madre during the past three years have averaged 10 in number.

For men and women interested in business subjects, University College has prepared a program for the first week including more than a score of lectures open to the public. Among the more popular courses of interest to those engaged in retail and manufacturing lines are "Advertising Campaigns," by Gerry Fitzgerald, opening Thursday, September 22 at 7 p.m.; "Economics of Advertising," by Marc N. Goodnow, opening on Tuesday, September 20 at 5:30 p.m.; "Retail Store Management," by Dr. W. E. Koch, opening Tuesday, September 20 at 7 p.m. on the S.C. campus, and "Salesmanship," by Clark Hisslam, the first lecture in which is scheduled for Wednesday, September 21 at 7 p.m.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

IT HAS been agreed by the fire department to have individual pictures of the members to be hung on the wall of "Headquarters." Last Friday, Milt Steinberger, Harlan Gerlach, Jim Heasley, Joseph Swanson, Roy Walsworth and Bob Babbitt were the victims chosen for the photographer's first "shot." The photographer had a great time trying to keep "Shorty's" knees out of the picture as he sat for his.

The big fire at Santa Barbara serves to remind us that the fire hazard season is really just beginning. Right now the brush and weeds are in the proper condition to burn without much coaxing. The Chief is beginning to worry and offering suggestions to prevent fires. He says that we had better look at last year's gas heater and hose connection. Rubber only has a certain lifetime and when you put a rubber hose onto the wall connection, it should fit tight and

Hot Lead

By R. O. Caukin

SIERRA MADRE American Legion baseball players and enthusiasts were one hundred per cent right. The team made it two straight, and now we will have a silver cup to exhibit and brag about. Good work, comrades.

If there be any comrades who are not willing to accept the Auxiliary on a basis of mutual and equal consideration and regard, they should have been present at the open meeting of the Auxiliary last Monday. The reports of accomplishment in the past year in the various departments of service were enlightening as to what our Auxiliary Unit is doing, and the conduct of the meeting, including installation of officers, was above criticism. The incoming Post Commander will have the pleasant privilege of co-operating, in matters of common concern, with the gracious and capable Unit President, Mrs. Maybelle Barker. A similar thought has been expressed by Commander Embree, about his association with the past year's President, Mrs. Roy Pickett.

Comrade Prosper Grevillot has applied for the Order of the Purple Heart. His World War service was with the 105th Field Artillery, 27th Division, as sergeant. This outfit was originally a unit in the New York National Guard, and with it Comrade Grevillot saw service on the Mexican border during the difficulty with Villa. The list of front line stations in France which his battery successively occupied, reads like a couple of pages from a French school geography. Grevillot had plenty of experience at the front. He was gassed in one of the actions.

As soon as Comrade Andrew Killoran is free to attend Post meetings and take the column, "Hot Lead" will be turned over to him. I want to acknowledge the courtesies shown me by Editor L. E. Goshorn and staff, of The NEWS. It has been a pleasure, as well as a responsibility, to conduct the column.

Also, I want to express my admiration for the work of my fellow columnist, Mrs. Dorothy Shetler, of the Auxiliary. Her clever choice of material, and breezy, attractive style, make the weekly Auxiliary column in The NEWS very readable.

ARRANGE LATER SERVICE AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The time of services at the Church of the Ascension will change next Sunday, and 11 o'clock will be the time of the main service of the day. The early service will be at 7:30 a.m. instead of 8 a.m.

not leak. Everybody knows that, but we don't always think about it. The gas should also be turned on and off at the wall.

We may all know this too, but there are few people that don't. The reason for this is simple enough. When the valve at the stove is turned off, the gas pressure remains in the hose and maybe when you are not expecting such, the hose may leak and fill the house with gas or cause a fire. And then again, we are about to light up the old fireplaces. The vines have grown a lot since last cold spell, so we had best look and see if the chimney is clear of inflammables.

If you should run into trouble with a fire, call the fire department before you try to extinguish it yourself. We have very few fires in Sierra Madre for the size of the city and only care and vigilance are responsible for this good record.

Due to the tangle and scramble at the recent wedding party of Hayes, the bride had a new pair of expensive silk hose ruined and the firemen are obliged to buy a new pair.

Auxiliary's Officers Are Installed

Eighteenth District President Presides At Impressive Ceremony Here

With dignified and impressive ceremony the newly elected officers of the Sierra Madre Legion Auxiliary were installed Monday night in Legion headquarters. Mrs. C. N. Barker, new president of the organization, and other officers took their oaths of loyalty and fidelity to their unit, and Mrs. Barker was presented the gavel by Mrs. Laura Smithson, 18th District President who was present at the installation ceremonies.

Each officer was presented by Mrs. Roy Shetler, Sergeant-at-Arms, and instructed by Mrs. Smithson as to her duties for the coming year. The Escort ceremony was very pleasing. Both escorts were costumed alike in red, white and blue. Mrs. Elva Layton was pianist during this period.

Past Junior President Mrs. Roy Pickett, was pleasantly surprised with a past president's gold pin set with a diamond, which was presented to her by Mrs. Louise Roe in token of the unit's appreciation of her loyal, capable service. Both Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Barker were recipients of many flowers.

After the installation ceremonies President Barker declared a recess during which a short program was given by Mrs. Waverly Pratt and Miss Clara Newman. Miss Newman sang three selections, accompanying herself on the piano, while Mrs. Pratt gave some humorous readings. Both were applauded with enthusiasm. Corsages of sweet-peas were given to each at the conclusion of their numbers.

President Barker named her committee chairmen, taps were played, and the meeting was at an end. A social time was then enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Olsen, entertainment chairman. Among the Legionnaires present were Commander Arthur Embree, and Commander-elect R. O. Calkin, who gave short speeches in appreciation of Auxiliary activities. Many out of town guests were present, including Mrs. Myrna Wynkoop, Past 18th District President.

MRS. A. D. CAIN TO OPEN PIANO STUDIO HERE

Mrs. A. D. Cain, who is opening a piano studio at 565 West Central avenue here, is a teacher who wishes her experience and ability to be demonstrated through the progress of her students. She is a graduate of the Chicago Municipal College, and later studied in New York City with Otto Joblonsky and Eugene Heffey.

Recently Mrs. Cain took a master course with Alberto Jonas, the celebrated Spanish virtuoso in New York. Coming to Los Angeles 15 years ago from the East, where she was well known in musical circles, she numbers many talented students among those she has taught there. One of these, Miss Mary Funk, was heard by Sierra Madre music lovers at a park concert here not long ago, her art creating a most favorable impression.

After spending the summer in Sierra Madre Mrs. Cain decided that this was a place that would be restful and inspiring both for herself and for her pupils. She may be interviewed from Friday evenings until Tuesday mornings. Miss Mary Young has accepted a secretarial position with Mrs. Cain.

YOUNG MUSIC PUPILS ARE ENTERTAINED BY TEACHER

A talk on early music by Mrs. George Morgridge was the feature of an entertainment tendered the Music Study Club at her home last Tuesday afternoon. The club, which is composed of Mrs. Morgridge's junior music pupils, was served refreshments while Howard Morgridge amused the young guests with stereopticon pictures. Miss Kimiko Shimizu presented a program of piano numbers prior to Mrs. Morgridge's talk. Those present were Helen and Bobby Thayer, Donald and Betty Tarr, Lyman Bates, Katherine Grammer, Richard Twycross, Kimiko Shimizu, and John Ashmore.

MIDDOUGH NAMED AGENT HERE FOR BIG DRUG FIRM

Word was received this week by William Middough, Central avenue druggist, that he has been appointed exclusive agent in this area for Currier's Tablets, a highly recommended stomach remedy now being extensively advertised throughout the country.

Jascha Heifetz Will Play in Hollywood Bowl

JASCHA HEIFETZ, one of the world's great violinists, plays a special post-season concert in Hollywood Bowl on Tuesday, September 20. Last season more than 14,000 heard this master of the violin give a recital in the bowl.

Admission Day Is Celebrated Here With Fete In Park

The days of the Dons and Calbaleros came back for a few brief hours on Friday night as Sierra Madre celebrated California Admission Day in the city park. A colorful program of tableau and song presented by the Congregational Church and the Red Cross was brought to a close with a fitting scene in which Miss Mary Young portrayed California's entrance into the Union. Directed by Mrs. Myrtle Hill, the program showed the progression of the State from the days of the dons and ending with Admission Day finale. Afterward a community singfest was held, and the performers and stage crew were served ice cream and cake at the church.

Notwithstanding the fact that a very large crowd from here attended the baseball game in Pasadena, the park crowd was one of the largest of the summer. Many spectators were drawn to the entertainment who had not previously seen any of the night affairs in the park. This was due in part to the special front section that was reserved for the old folks and those who were hard of hearing.

RARE ANIMAL FILM AT ARCADIA THEATRE

The hit of the wild animal pictures, Frank Buck's authentic African talkie, "Bring 'em Back Alive" is the feature attraction at Dean's Arcadia Theatre tonight and Saturday. Every foot of this thrilling epic of animal life was filmed by Buck in the dark continent.

Some of the thrilling adventures that are brought to life on the screen are the death battle between a python and a bengal tiger, the ferocious fight between the tiger and a black panther, and the capture of a monster lizard. There will be a children's matinee with special prices in effect Saturday.

Sunday and Monday "Mystery Ranch" and "Office Girl" are billed. The one stars George O'Brien, and the latter is one of the season's sensational musical comedies. "Guilty as Hell" and "Bachelor's Affairs" are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday. Adolph Menjou is the naughty bachelor. On Wednesday also will be a special film showing a Caesarian birth, and other scenes which are said to be fearless, truthful, and educational.

A matinee for women only, while a special night showing will be given for men following the regular bill.

SERVE YOURSELF STORE ESTABLISHED OVERNIGHT

The Central avenue Safeway Store closed last Thursday evening in its usual form and garb, only to open the next morning after a busy night on the part of a number of workmen, as an ultra modern serve-yourself store. John Spoelstra, manager of the grocery department, and his helpers, will be on hand as ever to assist and offer suggestions.

Old Age Pensions And Insurance For Gas Company's Help

Employees of Southern Counties Gas company were advised, this week, of the installation of a new old-age retirement-income plan for the benefit of company employees. The plan also includes monthly disability income and substantial life insurance should death occur prior to retirement age which is fixed at age 65 for men and age 60 for women. Industrial leaders consider the new plan as the most advanced idea which has been projected by any American business this year.

District manager H. R. Mead, in presenting the plan to company employees here, pointed out that while the larger part of the fund is provided by the company, the employees depositing three percent of their income do so in the nature of a savings account. Should any employee leave the service prior to reaching retirement age his entire deposit to the fund with the addition of compound interest is paid to him at once.

The plan provides for a monthly income for life, after reaching retirement age. This monthly income is based entirely on the employee's earnings while in active service and upon the length of service. Monthly disability benefits—should disability occur while in active service—amounts approximately to one-third of the salary. This disability income may be continued up to five years. Life insurance, under the plan, is equal to one year's pay while in active service, and is in effect during the period of active service.

MRS. GEORGE HASLETT IS DEAD IN ARCADIA

Many Sierra Madreans were saddened on Wednesday morning by the sudden passing of Mrs. George Haslett at her home in Arcadia. She was a member of Bethany Church and of the Bethany Missionary Society. She had attended the Missionary meeting on Tuesday afternoon and seemed in the best of health. Surviving are her husband and two sons. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Glendale.

SEPTEMBER GARDEN NOTES

By Jessie Ward Russell

PLANT violet plants now for winter bloom. They will enjoy a partially shady spot. Give them plenty of room so that they may increase by runners.

Wash off foliage of trees and shrubbery as they are covered with dust, webs, etc., and are good breeding places for mealy bugs and other pests. Many of the worst of the pests can be greatly reduced by the force of water which knocks them off the foliage.

An ornamental hedge that will also be very useful is one made of Strawberry Guava plants. The fruit resembles strawberries in flavor, can be eaten raw or made up into jelly. When cooked it loses the strawberry flavor and possesses a flavor of its own that is liked by all.

Plant the guavas from two to three feet apart in making a hedge. Give them lots of water if you want fruit. Trim the hedge slightly each winter after the fruit has been picked. There are yellow and red varieties of the Strawberry Guava. They taste alike.

Dust Statice plants with sulphur to prevent curly-leaf. Do this every month or two and the plants will live for years.

Trailing Lantanas will make an attractive cover plant for walks, banks and parking strips and will be permanent as well. The color, lavender-pink, will blend with all other colors. Planted now, they will make a quick growth before cold weather starts in.

When Christmas comes every one will wish they had a native holly tree growing in their own back yard from which they could pick berries to decorate the house. Holly plants are easy to

Wednesday This City's Day At Fair

Horse Show And Races To Feature Program Arranged For Great Show At Pomona

Wednesday, September 21 will be Sierra Madre day at Los Angeles County Fair which opens in Pomona today. A gala program is being prepared in honor of the event. Sights, thrills and enjoyment will crowd rapidly upon one another from morning till midnight. The festivities will open at 10 o'clock when all exhibits and stables will be open for inspection. The morning hours will be given over to a general sightseeing tour in the great agricultural building with its collection of practically every fruit and vegetable grown in the civilized world and the elaborate feature exhibits entered by the various counties, cities and organizations. From the agricultural building the throngs will be directed to the great poultry, rabbit and pigeon exhibits with their record breaking number of entries. A visit to the premier livestock show with its hundreds of head of prize animals from all parts of the country will be another feature of the morning.

The beautiful great steel and concrete grandstand will be thrown open at 1 o'clock and there will follow immediately a marvelous program of thrilling circus sets, high aerial feats, mirth provoking stunts, trained elephants, trained horses and hundreds and one other features. The racing program will start promptly at 1:30 and will contain some of the feature races of the week in both the harness and running divisions. There are more than 500 race horses taking part.

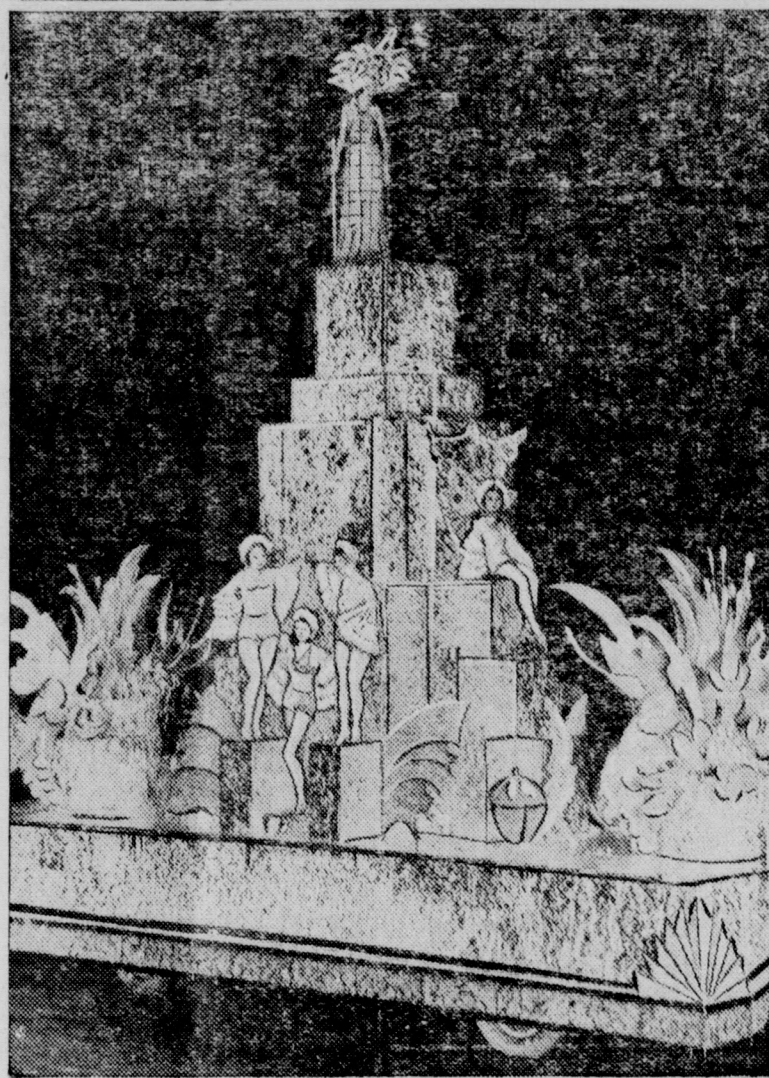

For those not attending the races there is the great women's exhibit with its 830 classifications, the school exhibits, harmonica band concerts and other entertaining features too numerous to mention.

The evening is filled with interest. On this particular night there will be a horse show before the great new grandstand. Before and interspersing the program there will be colorful entertainment features. Many reunions and other gatherings are being planned for the day.

Family tickets for the fair are on sale here at reduced rates by Middough's Sierra Madre Drug store, Hartmans Drug store and by the Sierra Madre Tailors.

grow in the yard and will produce much larger and brighter berries under cultivation than in the wild, if they are watered and cared for like any other tree. Young holly trees can be set out now and can be had growing in gallon and five-gallon containers. Sierra Madreans Robbed Near Scene Of Mexican Crime

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wammock and daughter Dorothy, of 258 East Central avenue, and Mrs. Wammock's father, E. C. Poluse of 264 West Grand View avenue, have returned from a thrilling vacation of a week in Ensenada, Tijuana, San Diego and vicinity.

While camping at Ensenada one night the Wammocks were robbed by a Mexican. Dorothy Wammock, who was sitting up in bed at the time, watched the man ram-sack their automobile, walk into their tent and strike a match before he saw her and fled. The thief took with him all the Wammock's money that could be found and some clothing. Luckily the larger portion of their money was hidden.

The Wammock family was surprised to learn that the scene of the robbery was near the spot where a young lady and man from Pasadena were murdered about two years ago.

Horses Going Back to Farms

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Sec. Agricultural Legislative Committee of California

One of the most interesting developments of the farmers' movement to avert unnecessary cash expenditures has been the rapid substitution, on many small farms, of mules and horses for tractors and trucks.

Former Assemblyman Van Bernard of Butte City, who, during his legislative days was familiarly known as the "dirt farm legislator," reports that so many farmers in the Sacramento Valley have returned to mules and horses that good farm animals are actually at a premium for the first time in recent years.

"On the small farm, with little cash income," says Mr. Bernard, "it is still possible to raise feed, whereas it is almost impossible to raise money for gasoline. The small cash return received by the little farmer must be conserved carefully to defray taxes, interest, irrigation charges, and other items which inevitably demand cash outlay. More farmers are 'living off the farm' than at any other time in the last 20 years."

Higher Prices For Avocado Growers Thru Cooperation

Adding more optimism for nearly 2000 avocado growers of this district, and throughout Southern California, and coming just before the close of the most successful annual sign-up ever staged, it was announced yesterday by James D. Hoffman, of Pasadena, local district leader here for the Calavo Growers' Association, that the average avocado return to the grower for July, and probably also for August and September, actually was two cents per pound higher than that of last year, despite the larger crop this season and the 24 percent decrease in consumer buying power since a year ago.

From about $3.25 per flat this last July, wholesale jobbing prices for "calavos" have risen eight times in the last six weeks, to some $13 per flat today, or are selling wholesale at about $1 per pound now. The rise is attributed to better distribution through an almost 100 per cent cooperative market control, less fruit, and to the elimination of "price-cutting" competition lately here. Next season, eastern marketing outlets are again expected to bring the highest net returns, with almost 60 cents per flat to be saved by exchange members by shipping in carlot only to New York and other distant outlets. Sales efforts, then, besides being rigidly restricted to promote cooperative-handled fruit, will be concentrated on building "price" and "sales volume" preference among dealers and retailers for association-standardized avocados.

OPERA CLUB BEGINS YEAR WITH BRIDGE

A bridge luncheon will mark the opening of the season for the San Gabriel Valley Opera Reading Club on Friday, September 16, in the beautiful gardens of the home of Mrs. S. O. Beckman, on Pothill Boulevard, between Lincoln Place and Sunset avenue, Monrovia. For members and friends of the club this will prove a delightful means of entertainment and renewing of acquaintance after the vacation months. The luncheon will be at 12:30. Mrs. Lawrence Peck of Arcadia is arranging for the event and her assistants are Mrs. Pottinger of Monrovia and Mrs. Watson of Arcadia. All those interested are invited to attend.

Library Patrons Still On Increase; New Books Arrive

Thirty-four more patrons registered for borrower's privileges at the local library during the month of August the monthly report released by Miss Lulu Moore, librarian, shows. The adult circulation was 4,430, the juvenile 1,131, bringing the total month's circulation up to 5,561, a 17 per cent gain over the figures for last year during August.

Below is a list of the new books that were purchased. Nine of the twenty are fiction, and the remaining eleven are non-fiction:

Fiction—"Keeper of the Keys" by Biggers; "Amos the Wanderer," Maxwell; "Family Circle," Maurois; "Faraway," Priestley; "Decade in Blue," Fuller; "Little Girl Lost," Bailey; "Head Tide," Lincoln; "Heat Lightning," Hull; "13 Thirteenth Street," Lincoln.

Non-Fiction—"Undiscovered Europe," Powell; "Counselor-at-Law," Rice; "Adventure," Wells; "Introduction to Humane Stupidity," Pitkin; "Mr. Justice Brandeis," Frankfurter; "Machines and Men in Russia," Fischer; "Secret of Concentration," Knowlson; "Ten Thousand Leagues over the Sea," Robinson; "Golden Isles of Georgia," Lovell; "His Excellency the Governor," Marshall; "Heritage of Years," Wolcott.

"From painstaking research in many fields—

The Exchange finds new citrus facts!"

WHY are citrus fruits important in the diet?

"Is frozen orange juice practicable? Which is the most efficient spray-oil emulsion? Can better lemon storage methods be devised?"

"Questions like these are vital to you and me as citrus growers. In the answers lie better prices for our crops, lowered production and marketing costs, and surer profits.

"You or I alone could not unearth these facts. The cost would be too great. The Exchange alone gives us the means. Few realize the vast scope of its research activities.

"The research department at Ontario and the field department laboratory at Pasadena are constantly experimenting with factors concerning maturity, coloring, packing and storage methods, and with by-products and their uses.

"The Exchange has furthered research in colleges and other institutions on the nutritional value of our fruit. This work enables Sunkist advertising to give the latest knowledge on vitamins and other health essentials. It has led to the 'acceptance' of our advertising claims by the Committee on Foods of the American Medical Association.

"Thus Exchange research turns questions into added returns. It is another proof that cooperation pays."

If not now a member— Learn why it is that Exchange growers, year after year, average higher returns for their crops. Talk to the manager of the nearest of the Exchange's 211 local associations or 25 District Exchanges. Or write, Growers Service Bureau, Box 530, Station C, Los Angeles.

All Stars Challenge Pennant Winning Soldier Team, But Series For City Championship Is Doubtful

By John Copeland
When the big game that brought the Legion League pennant to Sierra Madre was over on Tuesday evening, Mr. Emilie Smith (who is manager of the All-Stars) said to Mr. Waverly Pratt (who is well known on the Legion team): "When does this here game come off between your team and my team?"

Answered W. P.: "I dunno, Emilie. The Legion team is kinda splitting up now that the season is over."

Said E.S.: "The folks would like to see that game, Waverly. Then Burroughs and Smith came to an agreement — with Pratt apparently on the outside — that a three game series should start next Tuesday night, with the second game a week from tonight, Friday."

There is next an interlude of which we know nothing, in which the boys said thus and so and thus and so, and the last act of our little "drammer" is entitled: "The Challenge," by Emilie Smith, manager, the All-Stars.

As the radio announcers say, here it is (Smith's challenge): "The Sierra Madre Legion ball team has done a lot of talking about how easily they could beat the All-Stars, but it looks like they are afraid to play said All-Stars for the City Championship. Unless they agree to a three game series starting Tuesday night, as their team manager said they would, the All-Stars will claim the championship of the City."

Mr. Pratt speaking for the Legion furnishes the epilogue, and, we suspect, the curtain speech: "Our team is disbanded for the season. We have had a hard schedule, several of the boys remained at home to play out the schedule games and are going on their vacations now. To say that we are afraid of the All-Stars is silly."

popped out to Palmer, who heaved a great sigh of relief.

Pasadena tried to rally in the third. Kraft whammed a three-bagger through left field. Morse went down. Milholland brought Kraft in with a nicely placed drive between center and left field. Burris came through with a homer to score himself and Milholland. Eckstrom popped out to Pickett. Shaffer hit through center for a single and Casson struck out.

Burroughs, first man up for Sierra Madre, went down before Palmer. Pickett flew out to Milholland. Evans singled to right field and stole second, but Reavis struck out. Score 6-4.

Palmer opened the fourth by popping out to Pickett. Stanley went down meekly. Kraft walked, and Morse died at first.

Palmer was good as Pasadena took the field. Olsen singled to left but Welsh popped out. Harkness flew out, and Young did likewise.

In the fifth Milholland fanned. Burris singled and stole second, but perched there to watch Eckstrom pop out to Evans and Carson strike out. Pratt and Burroughs struck out and Pickett popped out in Sierra Madre's half of this inning.

Carson reached first in the sixth on a freak pop fly which Pickett muffed, and then stole second. Palmer, Stanley, and Kraft, however, struck out.

Evans pounced out a homer to right field. Reavis hit out to Burris. Olsen struck out. Welsh singled and Harkness was third man down with a strike-out.

Morse and Milholland were put away nicely in their half of the seventh, only to have Burris sock the apple away into the night and over the fence for a homer.

Eckstrom singled between first and second. Shaffer was out at first on a drive straight to Pratt. The locals didn't do so much. Young struck out. Pratt walked. Burroughs singled sending Pratt to second. Pickett flew out to Kraft and Palmer put Evans down.

Pratt struck out Carron and Granger in the eighth, the latter pinch hitting for Stanley. Palmer flew out.

Sierra Madre's half of the inning provided plenty of argument. Reavis singled. Olsen singled, sending Reavis to second. Welsh struck out, then Harkness drove a hard one to Milholland, who stepped on second for a double play, retiring the side. Reavis and his team mates held that Reavis had his foot on the bag, but the umpire ruled otherwise.

Mr. Pratt closed the game with a flourish. Kraft took two strikes, the Pasadena manager, Downey, stepped to the plate making motions toward Pratt which indicated he was handing out the old raspberry. Pratt sent a hot one that tempted Downey to fan the air. Milholland struck out and a wild cheer from the stand gave notice that the pennant was ours. The score:

Sierra Madre Gets Edge In Sizzling Opening Contest

Sierra Madre won the first of the championship play-off games with Pasadena at Brookside Park on Friday in a sizzling contest that kept everyone in suspense until the last man was out. Both teams were keyed up to the last notch and there were several brilliant plays.

Pasadena scored in the first as Morse, first man up, doubled, Bailey singled, Morse scoring. Burris flew out to Pickett. Young robbed Burris of a sure home run by racing out to left field to make the catch which cut off two runs.

In the first half of the third Sierra Madre started the series of runs which kept the local rooters on their feet through the remaining hectic innings. Reavis doubled, Olsen walked, Welch singled, and all three scored when Pasadena threw the ball away on the single.

Pasadena immediately proceeded to tie the score in their half of the period. Morse singled, Bailey bunted to Pratt and was thrown out at first, Morse taking second. Burris singled, scoring Morse. Burris reached third on the play for Morse at the plate. Eckstrom flew out to Olsen and Burris scored on the throw in. Milholland struck out.

Sierra Madre scored one run in the fourth. Burroughs socked the ball half way across the Arroyo for a homer. In the fifth Harkness made a non-stop circuit, bringing the score to 5-3 in the locals' favor.

Pasadena took the lead in the eighth by scoring three runs. Eckstrom grounded out to Pickett, Milholland popped up between first and home. Then what should have been an easy out became an error when Evans, Pratt, and Pickett forgot their signals and Pickett crashed in, fielding the ball. Shaffer hit a long fly to Welch who dropped the ball. Milholland going to third and Shaffer to second. Stanley popped out to Pratt for second out, and Casson singled, scoring Milholland and Shaffer. Palmer singled, scoring Casson. Palmer was out trying to stretch his single into a double.

Sierra Madre tied the score in the first of the ninth. Welch popped out to Shaffer. Harkness flew out to Milholland. Young walked, the scored from first on Pratt's double.

Things looked black when Bailey, second man up in Pasadena's half of the ninth, doubled, and on a delayed throw went to third. Only one was out, the winning run was all set on third, and Burris, the big shot in the valley city's battery, came to bat. But he popped out to Evans, and a moment later the day was saved when Eckstrom struck out.

The final and winning run came in the first of the tenth. Pickett walked, Evans hit to Bailey who dropped the ball on what was nearly a double play. Reavis singled, and Pickett was thrown out in an attempt to score from second. Evans went to third, then scored when given the opportunity by a bad throw. Reavis was thrown out at third, and Hill struck out.

Snappy fielding kept Pasadena's last desperate threat down. Milholland flew out to Reavis. Shaffer singled and was forced at second by Stanley who was safe at first on fielder's choice. Casson went down before Pratt's singing right arm for the third out, and the game was over. The score:

Ellsworth Vines came home, and how he came home. That boy took down Cochet in such a precise and at the same time furious fashion as to make one thing certain— he's greatest of all.

Now he has another job on his hands—the Pacific-Southwest tournament. It starts at the L.A. Tennis Club today. What's on hand? Well, let's see . . .

There'll be Bunny Austin, of Britian. He's the boy who took down America's third ranking players, Shields, at Wimbledon, and was only stopped by Pasadena's international champ. And the Italian Stefani, who is ambidextrous, taking 'his backhand shots as left forehands. He went to the French finals, where he was beaten by Cochet. From Spain comes Manuel Alonzo, who was Tilden's chief rival a few years ago.

As to doubles matches— John Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison are considered the strongest team in the world. They went down before Vines and Gledhill in last year's coast tournament with the deciding set finishing 16-14. The two games were separated from the rest of the match by a night. Japan will be there with Satoh and Kuwabara, who know all the jiu-jitsu tricks of the game . . .

Not forgetting Perry, English sportsman, and the feminine contingent made up of California's Carolin Babcock and Helen Jacobs, etc.

All of which isn't such a heck of a jump to the home sports news. Louis Fuller and Emilie Smith went out on the park courts Friday last and put on a two set match that ended one up. First set Smith led 5-2, only to get spanked eventually 9-7. Next set he won handily, 6-4. No two players in town who put on a snappier and more top notch game. Mostly a matter of cut shots and smashes against long flat placement drives—with steam.

Les Miller, of here, captains the P.J.C. Bulldogs this year. With great prospects for a conference championship ahead of them, the team went out onto the practice field Monday. Les was all-conference end last season. He should be in prime shape and hard on the opposition now— what with ice packing, tennis playing, swimming, etc., up among the A-1 air of S.M.

There's one football fracas in particular that as many as possible should plan on getting to. That's the UCLA-St. Mary's at the Olympic Stadium. The proceeds go to the disabled Vets. Tickets are to be sold through the Legion and Auxiliary here.

Aside from any altruistic motives, the game itself isn't to be sniffed at. The Bruins are after red raw meat this fall. And the Galloping Gaels from the northerly section are even tougher than in the past. Remembering that Sierra Madre "almost" got the state U set down right in the lap of the foothills quite a time back, we could go out for the Westwood eleven in an ample way.

Then there's auto racing. Al Belohlavek took his heap down to Huntington Beach last Sunday, won the Helmet dash, turned in a new track record in the qualifying heat, ran second in the final event and first in the ten-lap semi-final.

Jimmy Wilkinson who drove again, was still hounded by the jinx that put him out of commission at Burbank the previous week. Average speed in the qualifying heat has 75 mph.

Al has by far the neatest looking bus that we've noticed in any of the goes. Sunday he steps to Burbank again, and has his second shot at the Helmet cup there.

Last night Jim Heasley, II, threw punches in his last Southern California bout. The last one, that is, before he goes to Chicago. We're just taking it for granted he was up to his usual form, for The NEWS went to press before we could find out whether or not the eastern trip is assured. But if he got licked last night it must have been some husky gorilla that did the job.

A crowd of mucho grande (if our Spanish is OK) proportions were out Tuesday night to see the year's best and last ballgame. Probably the most effective cheering was done by the kids. This cheering was mostly of the Bronx variety. It came usually just as Mr. Palmer was about to wrap a hot one around the plate. Poor Oscar must have thought it was a cruel world. Old fashioned, cow-toned, auto horns, cow-bells, and no cow-eyes at all at all.

Probably the best catch of the eve was made by Mrs. Pitcher Pratt who (almost) caught a foul pop ball that skittered backward over the fence into her lap.

Mr. Pickett made the best catch of the game—and also the flooziest. He juggled one ball as though it were made out of hot butter, but maybe that was to give his kids some entertainment. They were right back of the fence egging him on. Nice ball the boys played at that.

And did Mr. Pratt get sore. Tsk, tsk!

it formerly cost to do the work he is doing. If the city is suffering it is not suffering from troubles brought on by the present Council, but by expenses saddled upon it by the former board.

W. J. Lawless said he served on the former Council and that his colleagues on the present Council had made a painstaking study of the city's needs and had reduced costs to a minimum. He said Mr. Myers was accomplishing more with less money than had ever been accomplished before since he became a resident of the city. He said Mr. Myers had very greatly reduced the cost of operating the water department and that under his direction the department had ceased to lose but instead was earning money for the city.

Mr. Kohl answered that the former Council had put through a bond issue that permitted of rebuilding the water system and that it was this renewal that permitted the department to be operated at a profit.

Mr. Kohl said the city had paid City Attorney Dodson $975 for legal services in a water dispute with Arcadia two years ago and that Arcadia, which had secured all it sought in the dispute, had paid only $500 for legal fees in the same case.

Mr. Dodson replied that the former Council had contracted for more than $50,000 in attorney and engineering fees in the case mentioned and that the former Council had proposed to increase the city's water rates to meet the charges. By the change in city administration, he said, the people had not only saved from $50,000 to $75,000 in this dispute with Arcadia, but had obviated the necessity of increased water rates as well.

Mr. Kohl asked if it were not true that a charge of five cents a mile for operating the automobile of Business Manager Myers was being allowed by the Council. Mayor Reavis replied that it was true. "This allowance is made for the car's use on city business and I only wish all of the cars used in the city's work could be operated on the same basis—we would save a lot of money," he said.

All this discussion followed adoption of a resolution by the Council denying a protest signed by owners of approximately 27 per cent of the affected property against the assessment rolls for the improvement of East Central avenue. The protest was predicated upon the ground that the ordinance under which the improvement was made had been declared illegal.

It was brought to an end when Mr. Kohl demanded to know whether or not the Council proposed to act in conformity with the resolution he had presented specifying cuts in the appropriations for the present fiscal year. He was informed by Mayor Reavis that the Council found it impossible to conduct the city as Mr. Kohl and his associates had demanded, that the tax levy and that appropriation ordinances had been finally adopted.

E. Waldo Ward said he had heard it predicted that nearly all of the property of this and many other communities would be sold for taxes before the present depression ends and he advised the Council to cut off every penny of unnecessary expense.

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME TO CELEBRATE FOUNDING
The first meeting of the John Ruskin Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire, since its summer session, was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Georgia A. West, 470 West Highland avenue. Plans were discussed for a minstrel show to be given for the benefit of the Red Cross in October, and a tea to be given next Thursday afternoon at the British Old People's home, in celebration of the anniversary of the opening of the home.
